—A young man named Charlie Frack, of Givard, while engaged in coupling cars at Orangeville, on Wednesday last, had his right arm shockingly mangled by being caught between the bumpers. The arm was dressed by Dr. Woods, of this city, who found it necessary to cut away a considerable portion of the flesh in the woods. In a few minutes an A, & G. W. locomotive arrived from Leavitsburg, and planted itself on the distribution. And the distribution of the engineers of the A. Y. & P. happening to step out of the woods was recognized by the sheriff, who succeeded in making due temporary abandonment of the scheme to make the crossing.
